1. One mist-y moist-y morn-ing when cloud-y was the weath-er, I met with an old man — cloth-ed all in leath-er. He was cloth-ed all in leath-er with a cap be-neath his chin, sing-ing, How d'you do and how d'you do and how d'you do a - gain.

How d'you do and how d'you do and how d'you do and how d'you do a - gain.

2. This rustic was a thresher as on his way he hied,
And with a leather bottle fast buckled by his side.
He wore no shirt upon his back but wool unto his skin,
Singing, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
3. I went a little further and there I met a maid,
A-going a-milking, a-milking, sir, she said.
Then I began to compliment and she began to sing,
Saying, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
4. This maid, her name was Dolly, clothed in a gown of grey,
I, being somewhat jolly, persuaded her to stay.
And straight I fell a-courting her in hopes her love to win,
Singing, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
5. I having time and leisure, I spent a vacant hour,
A-telling of my treasure while sitting in the bower.
With many kind embraces I stroked her double chin,
Singing, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
6. I said that I would married be and she would be my bride,
And along we should not tarry and twenty things beside.
I'll plough and sow and reap and mow and you shall sit and spin,
Singing, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
7. Her parents then consented, all parties were agreed,
Her portion thirty shillings, we married were with speed.
Then Will the Piper he did play while others dance and sing,
Saying, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
8. Then lusty Ralph and Robin with many damsels gay
Did ride on Roan and Dobbin to celebrate the day.
And when they met together their caps they off did fling,
Singing, How d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do and how d' you do again.
